Dear Sir/Madam,

TRANSFER CONFIRMATION

Reference:

A. GBSIT2017/00144 dated 24 May 2017.

1. We jointly confirm that the controlled goods listed below were duly transferred from the ownership of MNG Maritime Ltd, a UK Company incorporated in England and Wales to Seagull Maritime Security Ltd, a Company incorporated in Malta.

2. The goods were transferred on board MV MNG Centurion (IMO 8029181; MMSI 341462000) at position 18°50'N, 039°30'E, on 24 May 2017.

3. MNG Maritime Ltd confirms that they will maintain records of the transfer of the controlled goods for at least 4 years following this transfer.

4. Seagull Maritime Security Ltd, the named end user, confirms that:

- The sole purpose for the controlled goods is the provision of Maritime Anti-Piracy services in the internationally-recognised "High Risk Area" of the Indian Ocean.

- None of the controlled goods referred to at Reference A will be re-sold, nor donated or loaned to any other entity and that Seagull will retain ownership at all times.

• The controlled goods will remain under the control of Seagull, or their in country representative(s), or the designated national security organisation(s) at all times, whether in use, in transit or in secure storage and the ammunition will be protected against un-authorised re-transfers, loss, theft or diversion.

• In the event that Seagull require to/or wish to dispose of the controlled goods at Reference A to a third party (as yet unidentified) then a SITCL or OITCL will be raised permitting this to happen.

• Seagull will maintain a registry of the weapons referred to in this application in order to enable future audit by licensing advisors.

5. List of controlled goods:
